Diabetic Shoe Program

Proper foot care is an important part of diabetes management. Diabetics are at an extremely increased risk for serious foot disorders that can often lead to hospitalization. Ulcers or sores on the feet can be caused by improper shoes, which can result in infection and possible amputation.

Studies show that well-fitted diabetic shoes with moldable insoles reduce the development of ulcers and sores. A therapeutic shoe program can enable your patients to maintain an independent, active lifestyle.

Learn more about how to start a Diabetic Shoe Program in your location and help your customers start preventative measures early and avoid later foot complications. Therapeutic shoes and insoles are an excellent first step toward better foot care!

It's all at your fingertips...
