

CUSTOMER DSCSA THIRD-PARTY AGREEMENT

Agreement made this _____ day of _____ 20__ by and between Cardinal Health and (Customer Name) _____ (Account #) _____.

Beginning July 1, 2015, Cardinal Health agrees to confidentially maintain the transaction information, transaction history, and transaction statements (collectively referred to as transaction data), required under the Drug Supply Chain Security Act (DSCSA), on behalf of the Dispenser/Customer named above.

Cardinal Health will maintain the transaction data for six years from the transaction date at no charge to the Customer. Transaction data will be available online via a web portal that the Customer can securely access to obtain data for a specific transaction.

In the event Customer terminates their distribution agreement with Cardinal Health, transaction data maintained to date may be provided to Customer in an exportable file format in lieu of ongoing access to the web portal.

Transaction data will only be available for DSCSA-eligible product sold by Cardinal Health to Customer. For any items Customer receives direct from the manufacturer (via drop shipment or direct shipment), or from a wholesale distributor other than Cardinal Health, Customer is responsible for maintaining the transaction information, transaction history, and transaction statements received for six years.

Customer is responsible for maintaining a copy of this written agreement and shall not be relieved of the obligations of the dispenser under subsection FDCA Sec. 582 (d) (1).

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions of this agreement

Title: _____

DSCSA allows for a dispenser to enter into a written agreement with a third party, including an authorized wholesale distributor, under which the third party confidentially maintains the transaction data required to be maintained under DSCSA on behalf of the dispenser.

Please note: Customers do not have to sign this agreement to view their transaction data on Cardinal Health's system. Cardinal Health will maintain transaction data for six years and it will be available and accessible to the customer at no cost regardless of whether they enter into this agreement.
