Customers share what the transition to Cardinal Health masks means to them

Quality

"The Cardinal [Health] masks are more comfortable, fit better and the earpiece does not stretch."

Perioperative Management, medium enterprise healthcare company

"It wasn't difficult because Cardinal Health provides the same quality as our previous manufacturer."

Natalia Bedoya, Materials Manager, United Surgical Partners

"Most often, it is the surgeons that are reluctant to change from a product that they have been using. Comfort is important, and it is difficult to get them to try something new. Fortunately, my surgeons liked the Cardinal [Health] product and transition was painless for them and economical for the Center! Definitely, a win-win!"

Supply Chain Management/Materials, small business healthcare company

Costs

"Very simple, it has helped lower spend."

Lisa Pevey, Supply Chain Management/Materials, Meridian Surgery Center LLC

"Never an issue — converted quality was a bonus to price benefit."

Steve Encardes, Supply Chain Management/Materials, Surgical Specialists ASC

Availability

"The process was simple! We had assistance sourcing alternatives and/or exact match surgical masks, with the ordering process then implementation, our conversion was seamless."

Andrea Scofield, Director of Supply Chain, Midwest Surgery Center

"Our transition meant the satisfaction of having product availability and safety protection of the mask for our employees."

Amelia Garza, Supply Chain Management/Materials, Universal Health Services, Inc.

"It has meant a lot to us the convenience of getting this item without having to wait weeks."

Mae Billingsley, Supply Chain Management/Materials, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

"The availability is wonderful."

Martha Delome, Supply Chain Management/Materials, Keystone Surgery Center
